SOME INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE SOUTHWORTH HOME

Each newsletter we will feature some interesting items from the Southworth Home.

This newsletter we are featuring items found in Rebecca Southworth's dresser.

Back when they used to use real animal parts for women's accessories - an alligator foot coin purse and a mink stole made with three mink pelts.

The answer to last newsletter's items (pretty inlaid decorated wood with ivory insets) are Beziq Markers, used in an old card game.

We had a great crowd for our "Mystery Signature Quilt" program on July 14. Presenter and quilt researcher, Anita Loscalzo, had great information she shared with the audience, and gifted the quilt to our collection. Pictured to the left is Anita Loscalzo, and Maria Ortiz.
